

Meetings with Ambassadors and Joint Activities

Meetings with Ambassadors and Joint Activities

2019

During 2019 Niš City Mayor Darko Bulatović met with:

- General Consul of Bulgaria in Serbia Mr. Edwin Sugarev. This was the farewell visit by Mr. Sugarev. On this occasion the Mayor expressed his gratitude for successful and close cooperation during the four years of his term of office in Niš. During the meeting both sides emphasized the importance of very good bilateral relations between Serbia and Bulgaria, further improvement of economic and cultural cooperation, as well as resolving minority issues.
- Ambassador of Tunisia in Serbia Mr. Seyf Allah Rejeb. The meeting was w cooperation.

possible. Bizerte is the home of one of the largest Serbian military cemeteries in North Africa, eternal home to 698 Serbian soldiers, many of whom belonged to the First Regiment of the Nis Reserve Troops. Establishing direct partnership and cooperation between the cities of Bizerte and Nis is in the mutual interest of our communities, in order to create favorable conditions for enhancing cooperation in various contents.

- French Ambassador Jean-Louis Falconi at Nis City Hall to discuss the potential cooperation projects. he topics Falconi on the occasion of the Ambassador's visit to Nis. During the discussions the special emphasis was put on the realization of the project of archaeological research of the city field and Nis Fort, which included experts from France, more specifically from the city of Arles which has been cooperating with Nis for several years.

- The ambassadors from the so-called Arab Group Ambassador of Palestine Mr. Mohammed Noman Ambassador

which is especially true of the project of preparing the tender and technical documentation for the construction of the Waste Water Treatment Plant, which has been supported by Sweden through Sida. The two officials also stressed the importance of maintaining 3 airline routes from Nis to cities in Sweden, Stockholm and Malmö and recently Gothenburg. It was also estimated that the improvement of air traffic, as well as all other types of traffic, significantly increased the capacities of Nis and this part of Serbia in attracting new investors from this friendly country, which, as agreed, would be the focus of future cooperation between Nis and the Embassy of the Kingdom of Sweden in Serbia.

- Ambassador of the Republic of Indonesia in Serbia, Mr. Mochamad Chandra Widya Yudha. The Mayor welcomed the Indonesian ambassador and expressed his satisfaction discussed new forms of exchange in the field of education, medicine, culture and economy through activities that Nis would have in the future, as the largest city in the South of Serbia and one of the centers of this part of the Balkans.

- Ambassador of Slovenia to Serbia, Mr. Iztok Jarc. he two officials discussed economic, industrial and sports cooperation between the City of Nis and Slovenia. Ambassador Jarc said, adding that he was especially looking forward to introduction of direct fli

Embassy, and the Norwegian Government in general, to support all initiatives that are aimed at improving relations, both through support and assistance to theater and music ensembles, festivals, art galleries projects in Nis and the region, as well as realization of potential investments of Chinese companies in the new production capacities in Nis.

German companies operating in Serbia, and this country

- French Ambassador to Serbia Mr. Frederik Mondolini at the opening of the exhibition entitled Our History, Our Memory dedicated to remembering the liberation of Serbia in the autumn of 1918 and the solidarity of Serbian and French soldiers and civilians in World War I. Mayor Bulatovic and Ambassador Mondolini participated in a forum on the topic of Serbian-French relations and long-standing friendship of two nations on the occasion of the 15th anniversary of the French Institute in Nis.
- Deputy Head of Mission of the Swedish Embassy in Belgrade Mr. Joachim Wern to mark the European Mobility Week in Nis and promote measures to reduce the use of from Nis and Egypt, held in the Regional Chamber of Commerce of Nis. A month before the Egyptian Ambassador paid his first official visit to the City of Nis on the occasion of the performance of the Cairo Opera Ballet information technology, culture and health.

- Ambassador of the Sovereign Maltese Order in Serbia, Mr. Albert Di Luca and Ambassador of Taiwan to Hungary, Mr. Endriem Chang. The immediate reason for the arrival of the ambassadors was the help with the medical treatments that the Sovereign Maltese Order provided to young girl from Nis who sent a request for assistance via official the Ministry of Public Administration and Local Self-Government.

- Ambassador of Australia to Serbia Ms. Julia Feeney who was in Nis for Nisville Jazz Festival and the performance by the Australian group Visions of a Nomad whose participation in the festival was supported by the Australian Embassy in Serbia.
- Ambassador of the Russian Federation to Serbia Mr. Alexander Vasilevich Chepurin, with whom they discussed economic cooperation.

- Ambassador of Finland to Serbia Mr. Pertti Ikonen. The Mayor and the Ambassador talked about the possibilities of the economic cooperation primarily between the City of Nis and Finnish cities and the possibilities for certain Finnish companies to invest in Nis. Then the Mayor and Ambassador planted five new birch trees in

