

MEETING OF THE FORMER MAYORS

September 22nd

Nis City Mayor Darko Bulatovic met today in the City Hall with 9 former leaders of the city. We have met today as a sign of gratitude and respect for people, time and citizens who supported them directly or indirectly, Mayor Bulatovic pointed out. According to Bulatovic, today's meeting is an example of how we should all work together and that we all should lead the city together to a better future. My obligation as the Mayor is to learn every day and find out something new, and, from the people who were the first people in the city, there is something to be heard and learned, Myor Bulatovic said.
