AMERICAN CORNER NIS

American Corner Nis was opened on February 14, 2003. This project is the result of the cooperation between the Nis Public Library Stevan Sremac, the City of Nis and the US Embassy in Belgrade. The American Corner provides access to current and reliable information about the U.S. via its book collections, the Internet, and through a variety of events such as speaker programs, lectures, seminars, documentary and movie projections, workshops, meetings, exhibits, discussion clubs, English-language classes, TOEFL and other tests, various exchange programs, holiday celebrations, and serves as an information outpost similar to a public library.
